

Gloria Estefan

Gloria Estefan was 16 months old when she and her mother fled to Miami following the Cuban Revolution.

Named the "Queen of Latin Pop", she is in the top 100 of best selling music artists with over 90 million albums sold worldwide, with 15.5 million of those alone in the United States. She has won five Grammy Awards and had several number one hits on multiple music charts, becoming among the most successful crossover performers in Latin music to date.
